FOREWORD

The pages that follow represent all phases of our school life, within which there is a place for every type of person. "Leadership for some, achievement for many, service for all." If, as you turn the pages of this year's PORTAL, just one pleasant memory comes alive again, then we of the PORTAL STAFF have succeeded. As years pass, we hope this book will become a focus through which our high school days can be seen as a lucid picture.

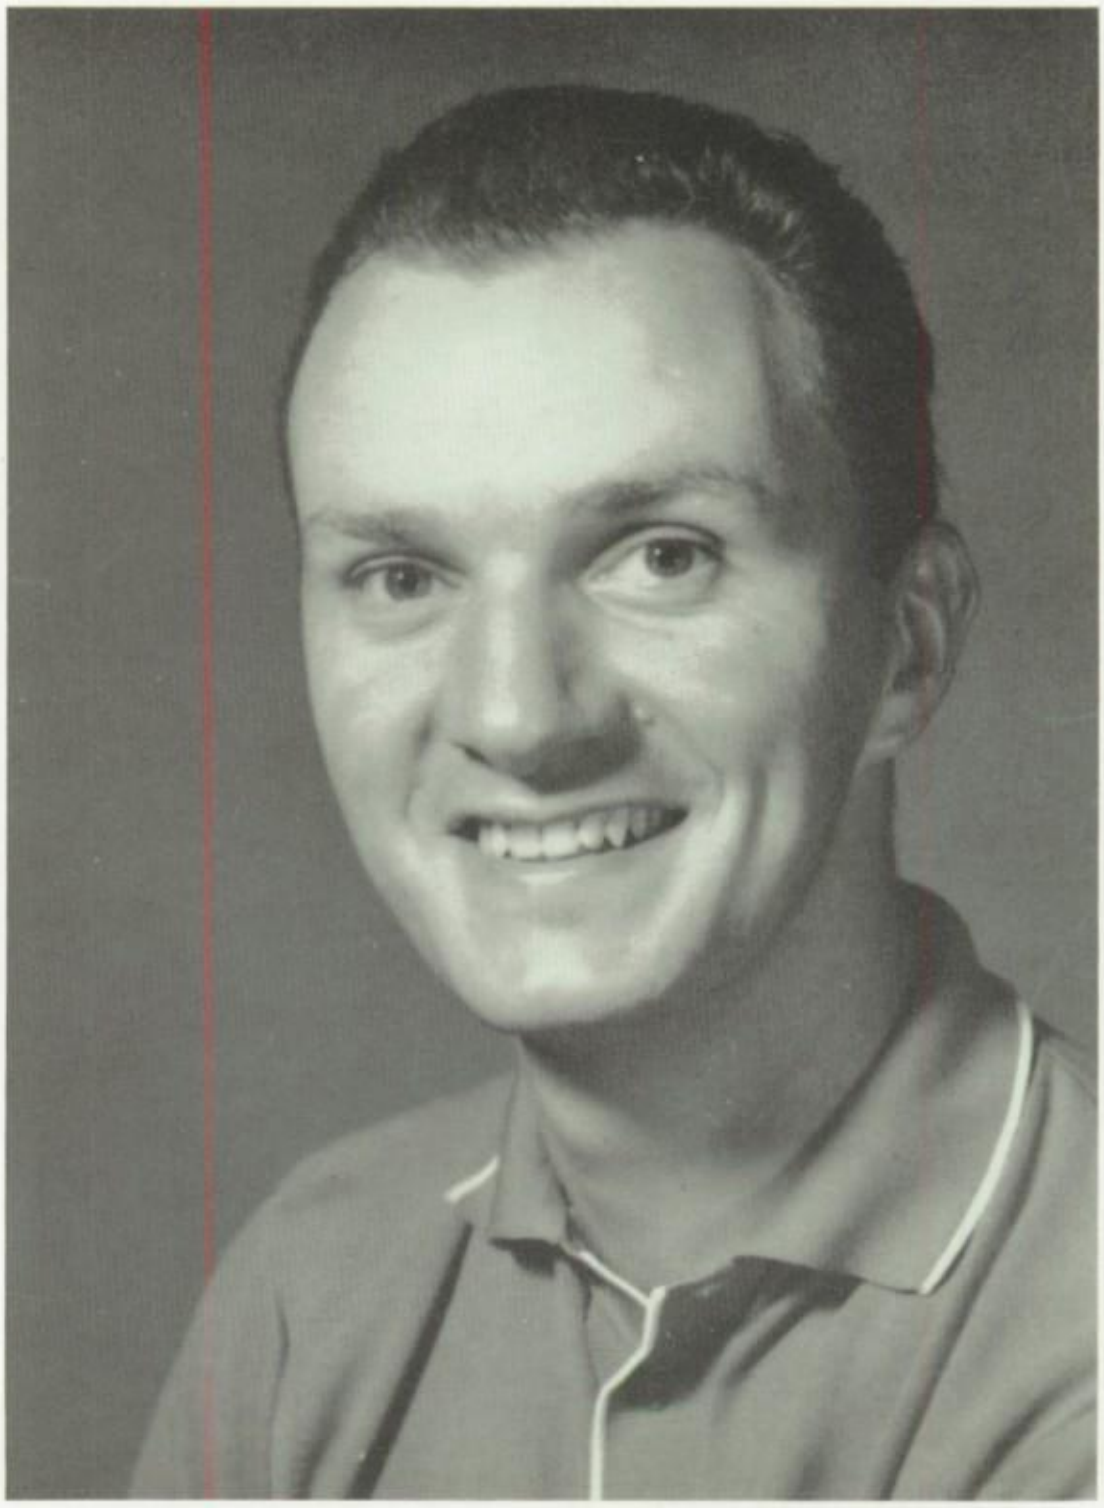
OUR THANKS 136



MR. CHARLES PUCKEY

A TRIBUTE TO SKILL AND SERVICE

The businessmen of this area presented a clock-radio to Coach Puckey in order to show in some small way their appreciation for the time and effort he gave freely in coaching our basketball team to victory. Without Mr. Puckey's excellent coaching, it is not feasible that our team could have traveled the road to victory.

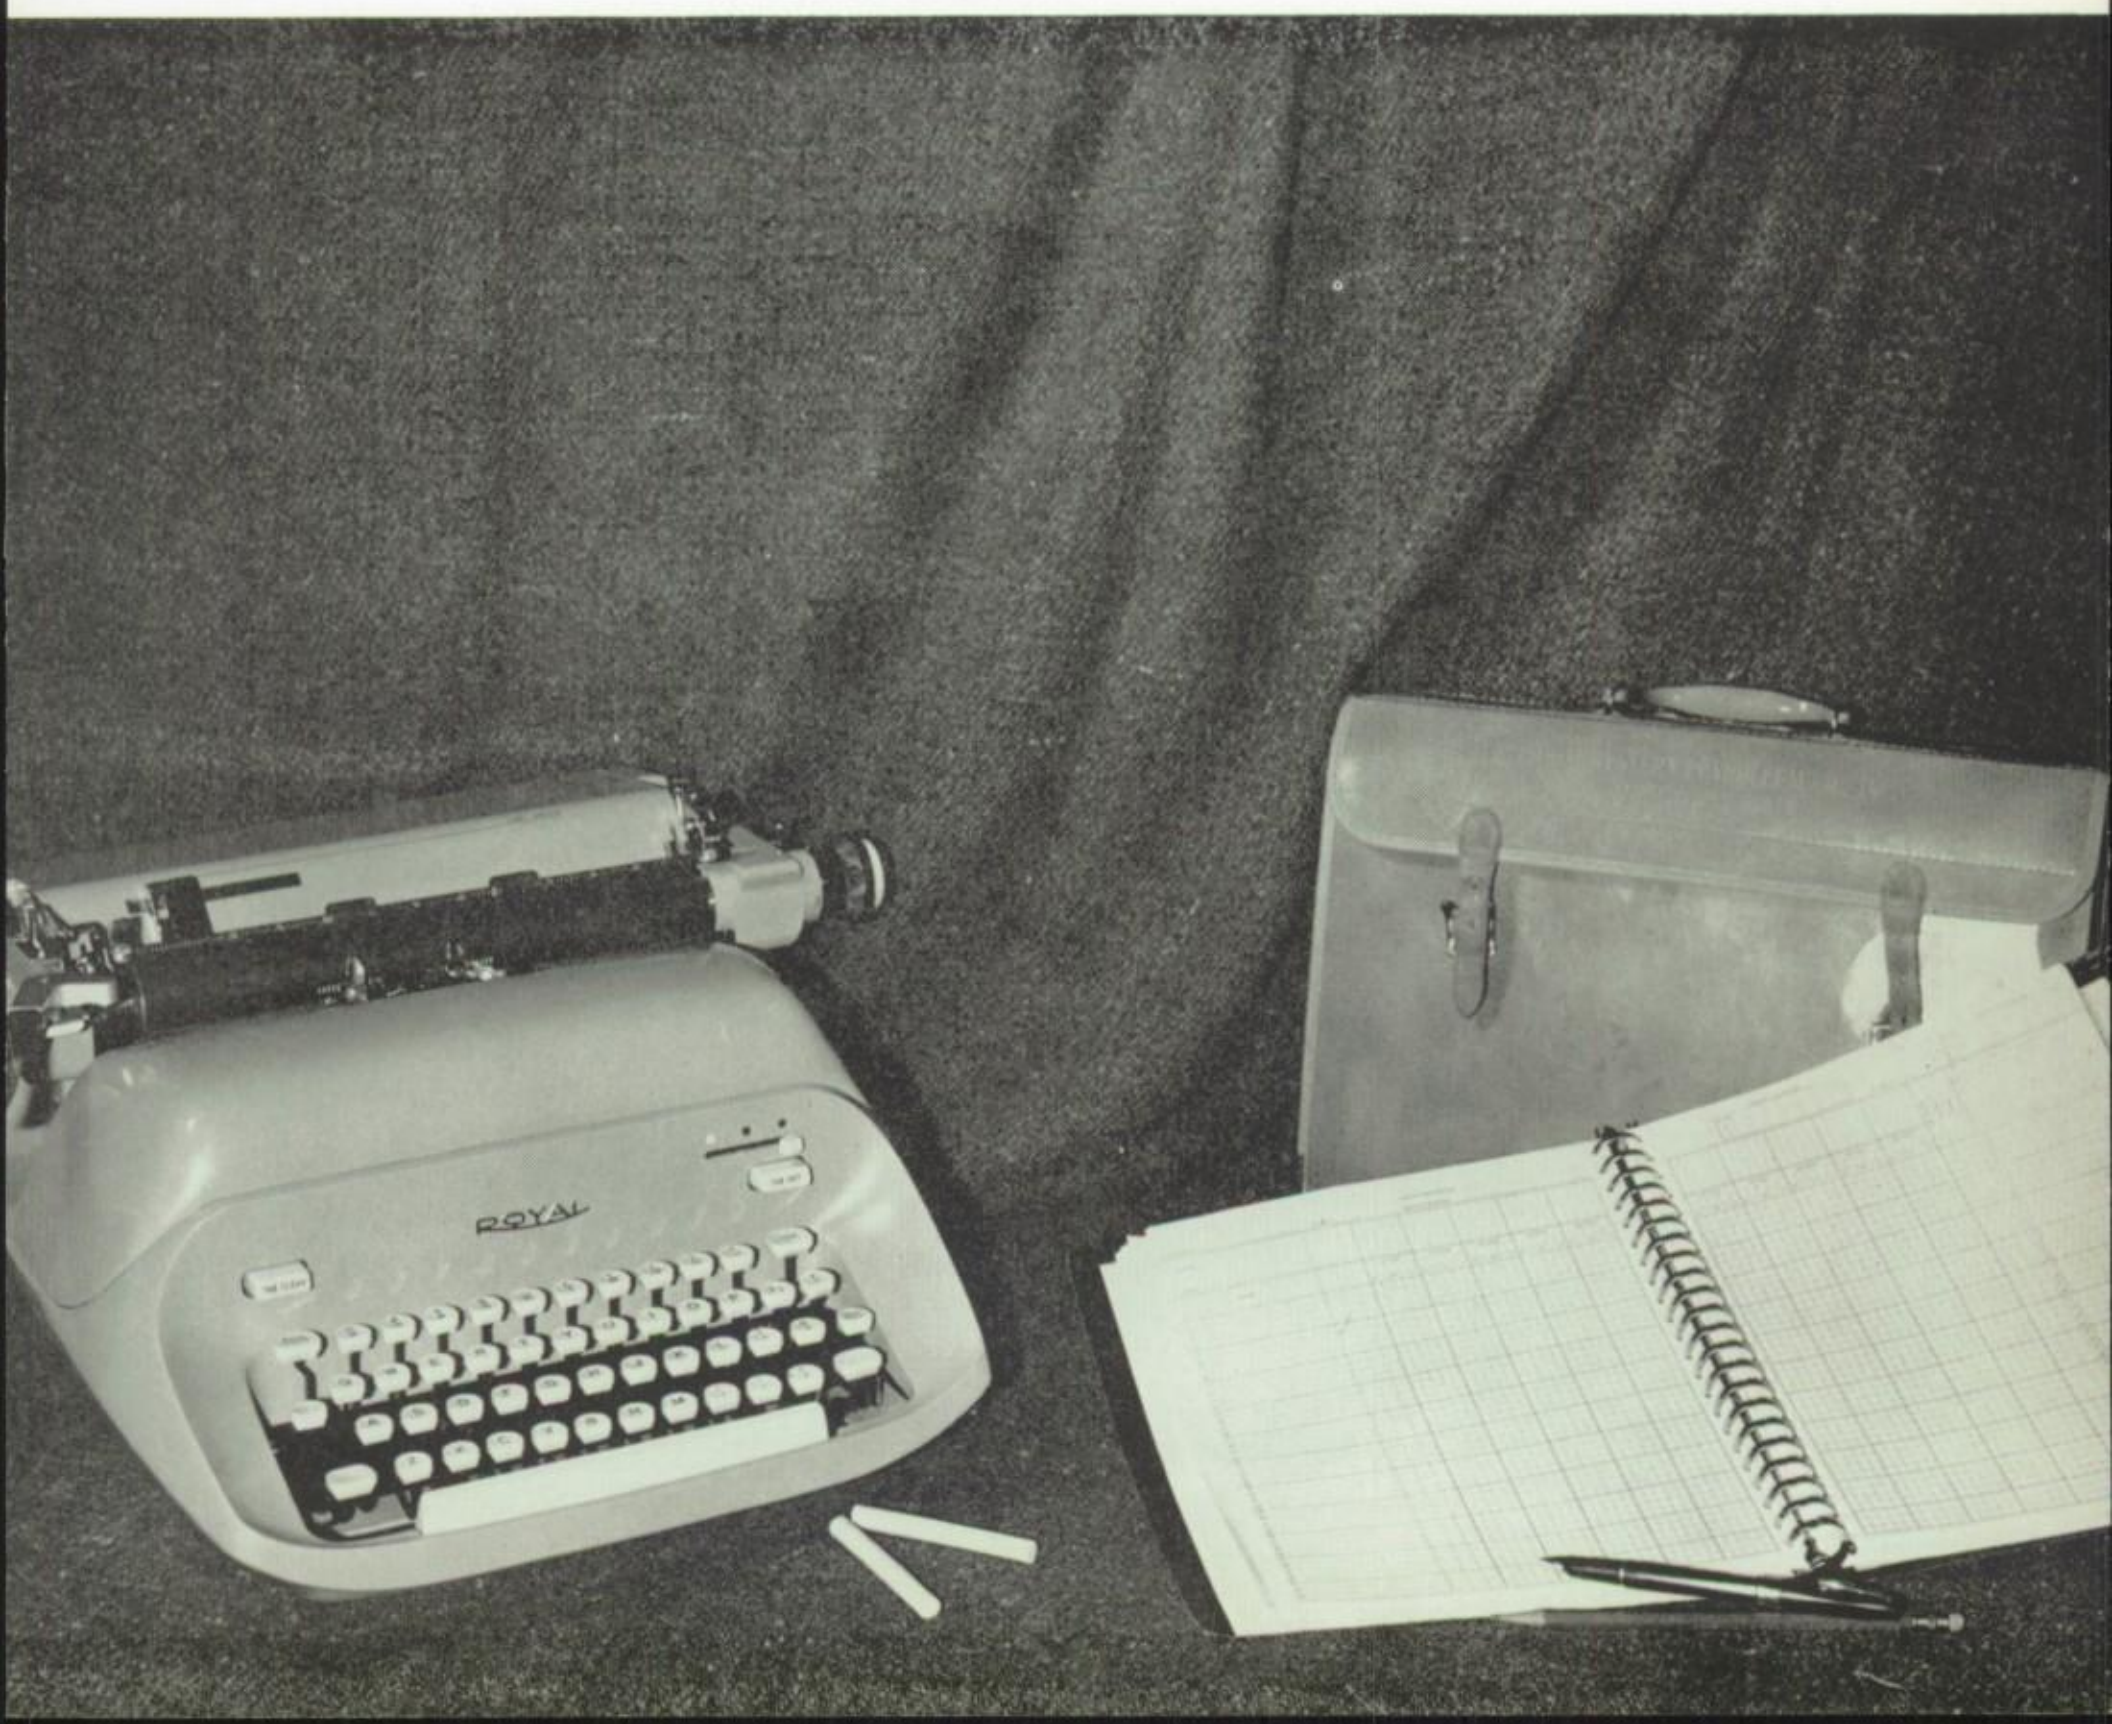
"NEXT COMES THE FIFTY MILE HIKE"

"Who says we aren't physically fit?" Under Mr. Puckey's direction these boys take part in a vital part of our curriculum—physical education class. A well-rounded education provides for both mental and physical training. In Mr. Puckey's classes, boys not only learn physical fitness, but also team spirit and good sportsmanship.

Because we feel that his work in teaching and coaching has been excellent and that he has been a credit to our school, we proudly dedicate the '63 PORTAL to Mr. Charles Puckey.

The teachers and administrators, in loco parentis, are probably one of the most important group of people in a student's life. By offering advice and guidance, they have helped in planning a future for all those seeking it. As they try to render assistance, as well as to set examples, they look for the best in every pupil whether it be in character or personality. Their help has been almost immeasurable. They encourage students to pursue a career suited for them. They try to help the student understand difficult subjects and help him improve his grades. Although it is often not realized, the teachers put in a lot of hard work both during and after school. Their task as a teacher or an administrator is never ending. There are always questions to be answered, tests to be given, schedules to be made out, etc. Although there is much hard work, the teachers and administrators are rewarded by the friendship, respect, and admiration of the students.

ADMINISTRATION



ACHIEVES ITS GOALS

The school board achieved one of its goals this year when the new grade school was completed. In addition, new academic programs have been introduced into our school program. Plans for the accreditation of our high school are being handled by Mr. Harper. Future expansion of the high school building will be necessary to meet the growing student body. This will pose another problem for the school board. The lack of available teachers and our need for so many make it difficult to secure the best. Nevertheless, the school board makes certain our teachers are capable, well-trained individuals. They work diligently to meet the constant demands of our expanding community. We would like to express our sincere thanks to the men who are providing the executive action which is vital to a good educational system.

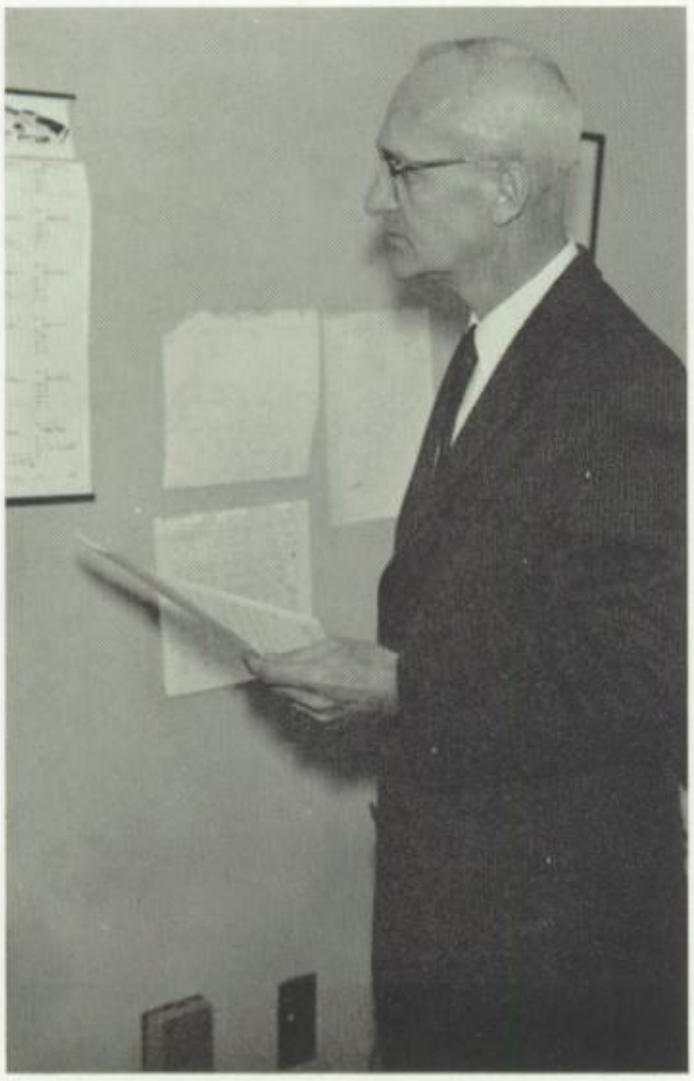
EVERYTHING A-OKAY

Mr. Victor R. Zack has many clerical duties. The two elementary schools at Rachel Hill and also the Senior High building provide multitudes of records which must be kept in order. Since his office is located at the Church Grove building, Mr. Zack is seldom seen at the Senior High. However, it is realized that his responsibilities are important in the managing of the Richland Township School District.

MR. HERLINGER LEADS THE WAY

The man who is a major key in developing and improving the Richland Township School District is Mr. Fred W. Herlinger, Superintendent. During his three years as supervising principal Mr. Herlinger has played an important role in the building of the elementary schools. He has never failed in performing his duties.

The seniors in particular have been aware of the changes instituted by Mr. Herlinger. Some of them have affected us and others have not. Those students in the grade school and junior high can be assured that, through Mr. Herlinger's efforts, they well receive the best education he can provide.



NO TIME OUT

Very little time can be spared during his long busy day. Mr. Herlinger, as director of our administration, must formulate school policies for the betterment of the Richland Township School District. This deals not only with academic and financial problems, but also in the realm of extracurricular activities. His primary concern is to assist the students at Richland in every way possible.

FILLS POSITION OF HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

Mr. William Harper came to Richland in August, 1962. His first position was at Richhill Twp. High School, Wind Ridge, Pa. For the next eight years, Mr. Harper was principal at West Green Junior and Senior High School, Rogersville, Pa. Prior to that he served as Assistant Professor of Business Administration at Waynesboro College, Waynesboro, Pa. where he received his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration.

In addition, Mr. Harper has a Master's Degree in Letters obtained from the University of Pittsburgh, Pittsburgh, Pa.

He has also done further study in educational administration at the University of Pittsburgh and at West Virginia University.

For the first few months Mr. Harper stayed in the background working diligently to understand and improve our school system. However, his constant supervision was felt. Mr. Harper also worked cooperatively with the various club advisors to provide students with an opportunity to plan extracurricular activities.

MISS RUSSELL SERVES AS GUIDANCE COUNSELOR

Always with the student's interest at heart, Miss Russell works continually to insure our success now and after graduation. Long before we don the white cap and gown she has helped us plan our future. Miss Russell uses her experience in teaching and traveling to aid her everyday work.

The large classes in future years will make her work more difficult. We feel she will still maintain an understanding of each individual student. Miss Russell surely deserves a "thank you" from all.

CONSIDER THE BASIC SEVEN

Mrs. McLeary, our Richland dietitian has sufficiently and effectively directed our cafeteria program since her recent arrival. Economics and a deep understanding of food values is essential for a well organized schedule. Since being a dietitian is a time consuming job, its holder must be devoted and dependable.

TYPING TEAM

In the top Miss Jeschonek, Mr. McLeary's secretary, and Miss Smith, Mr. Herlinger's secretary, are shown. In the bottom left picture is Mr. Harper's secretary, Mrs. Hershberger. Mrs. Rodgers, Mr. Zack's secretary, completes the group. The work of these highly capable secretaries is vital to the administration and to the school.

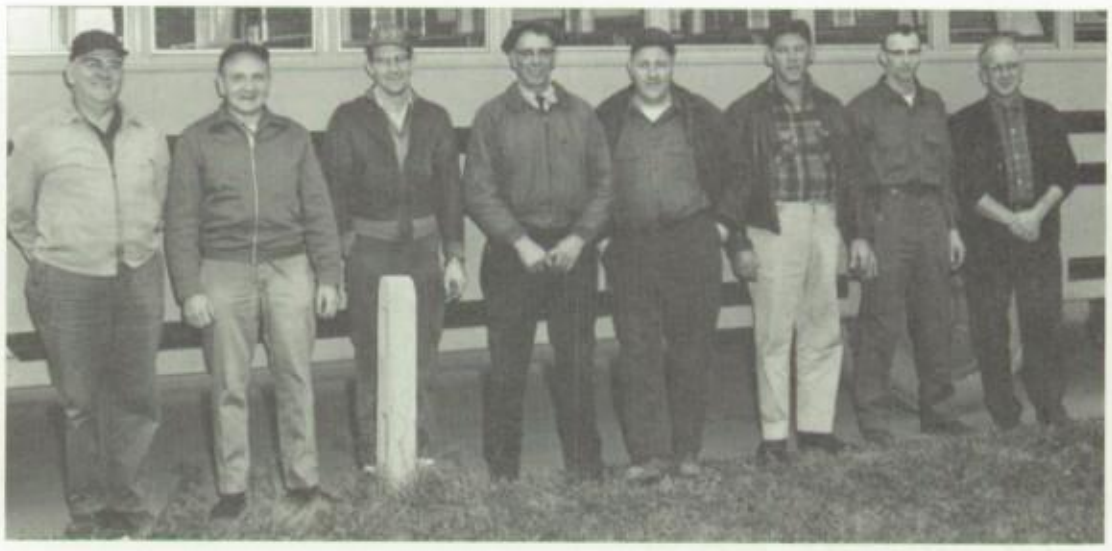
TEACHING LABORATORY

Perhaps the most important phase of a teacher's education is his student teaching. Although classroom work is essential, one must have training in actual teaching. To be able to conduct a class well is an art which takes time to develop. Many young men and women are learning that art here at Richland. At the right are: Mr. Burgeson, Biology; Miss Shaffer, Home Economics; Mr. Wissinger, World Cultures; and Miss Hay. At the left are: Mr. Burelli, Biology; Mr. Morris, American History; Mr. Torquato, World Cultures. All were students at Indiana State College.

THIS SHOULD BE ENOUGH

The closed lunch hour gave the students more time to eat and also time to eat more. It was an everyday occurrance to see a tray stacked high with double servings. The ladies who prepare our lunches manage to have them ready on time. The aroma of "what's cooking" fills the corridors making everyone hungry long before fifth period.

LEAVE THE DRIVING TO US



Winter driving added to the problems of our drivers. The new grade school and junior high buildings are filled with voices of students transported by the drivers. Split-second timing is required to transport all students from their homes to the respective schools on schedule.

JACK-OF-ALL-TRADES

If we had a "most wanted list" at Richland Township High School, Mr. Jeschonek would probably head it. When an individual or group needs help in setting up a mike, finding sets for a play, or seeking boxes for Christmas Food Baskets, Mr. Jeschonek is always there with a willing hand. During the school day or any other time, he can always be depended upon.

At last we hold the coveted position. We have spent many yesterdays dreaming and waiting for this time. Today we are Seniors. Of course, we have set our sights on tomorrow, but our hearts belong to today. These hearts are carefree, proud, and perhaps a little sentimental. After spending twelve years preparing for the future, we have to now accept the challenge to reach out and to grasp the door of success. In looking forward, there are many opportunities to strive for. Choosing one is our ultimate goal. As we take the position of the leaders of today, we must present ourselves as able, mature adults, for we will be the ones to guide our nation through whatever may be confronting it. As we look back to the passing days of high school, we do not realize that these days, which we will never experience again, have been some of the most worthwhile.

FACING FORWARD

The success of the all important Senior year is determined by dependable leaders. The class of '63 chose Ray Faczan, president; Tom Beam, vice-president; Janet Hoffman, secretary; and Mary Lou Swick, treasurer. These four students contributed their time and ability to make the year a successful one.

The Senior year is undoubtedly the most outstanding of all school years. Activities are numerous. Thoughts turn to the responsibilities of the future.

David W. Samuel, class advisor, guided the class through many projects. Two dances were sponsored, one being the annual Coronation Ball at which the king and queen of the class were crowned.

The biggest event of the year was the three day trip to Washington, D. C. The trip was an unforgettable experience.

Graduation marks a turning point in the lives of all Seniors. The future is a challenge which all hope to conquer.

I CAN'T FIND IT ANYWHERE

Diligent efforts are usually rewarded by finding the information sought. However, we must admit that even though knowledge leads to success, all who seek library permits aren't exactly "thirsty for knowledge". Still, much can be gained by library work and many students take advantage of the opportunities offered.

An underclassman can be compared to a diamond in the rough. He has the potential to become polished and sparkling. Each year as an underclassman, the student becomes more refined. Striving to achieve success and recognition, he works hard to reach the ultimatum, to be a senior, respected and popular. As he strives toward this goal his grades become more important. His outlook in life has changed completely. His life itself seems to fly by without him knowing where it is going. He takes an interest in the advice and guidance of his teachers, for now is the time he will mould his future. Someday he may be the teacher, the engineer, the astronaut, or even the President of the United States.

JUNIOR LEADERS

Chosen to lead the Juniors during the all-important year were Jeff Smith, vice president; Jim Blue, treasurer; Mr. Hollick and Miss Hoffman, advisors; Barry Decker, president; and Pat Slagle, secretary.

FUTURE GRADUATES

The Junior Class always has a busy year. The main activities of the class this year were the ordering of class rings, the Christmas candy sales, the choosing of the class symbols and the Junior-Senior Prom on May 31.

The symbols chosen by the class of '64 were the colors, beige and brown, and the yellow rose. "The essence of success is the desire to succeed" was chosen as their motto.

WHAT SALES UNION?

Candy captains, Prazich, Logar, Hunt, Horner, Stoner, Bittner, Langerholc, Irons, and Yost offered devoted service to the cause. Under the direction of Miss Thomas, the class was able to exceed its goal. Hard work and cooperation made the difference between a successful or unsuccessful drive. With strong class participation and able leadership from the captains, the class was able to collect a more than sufficient amount.

"WHAT'S THAT LITTLE RED THING?"

"WHAT DO YOU THINK ABOUT A . . . . . ?"

Here the Sophomore leaders Skip Rowland, vice president; Edie Bishop, treasurer; Gaye Petz, secretary; and Terry Purbaugh, president, convene with their advisor, Mr. Maquilken to discuss various issues of importance to the class.

DESTINATION - SHEEPSKIN

Now that Richland has a separate Junior High School all Sophomores are able to attend the Senior High. They look forward with anxiety to the oncoming events which will confront them in their remaining two years of high school. College has come out of the dark and presented itself as the dominant objective in the picture of the future. They take a big step toward maturity in their sophomore year and direct their thoughts toward the life following graduation. We find the future in the younger generation.

IT'S THE CONVOLUTIONS THAT COUNT!

Health, which was previously a Senior subject, is now present on the Sophomore schedule. Personal care and essential understanding of the human body are major parts of a person's education and cannot be overlooked.

Whether it be in football, basketball, baseball, or track, the varsity athlete has a well coordinated and conditioned body, both physically and mentally. Just as it takes a nation as a whole to succeed, it takes a team as a whole to have victory. Here at Richland Township, we can be proud of our athletes for their outstanding performances and their sportsmanship presented both on the playing field and on the floor. Thus, in doing so, they have set examples for the oncoming athletes who will replace them, and they have gained great respect and admiration for our school body. In glancing through the following pages, look at their faces and remember that these are the boys who have strived hard to participate and to represent our school in competition among the various schools in the outlying communities.

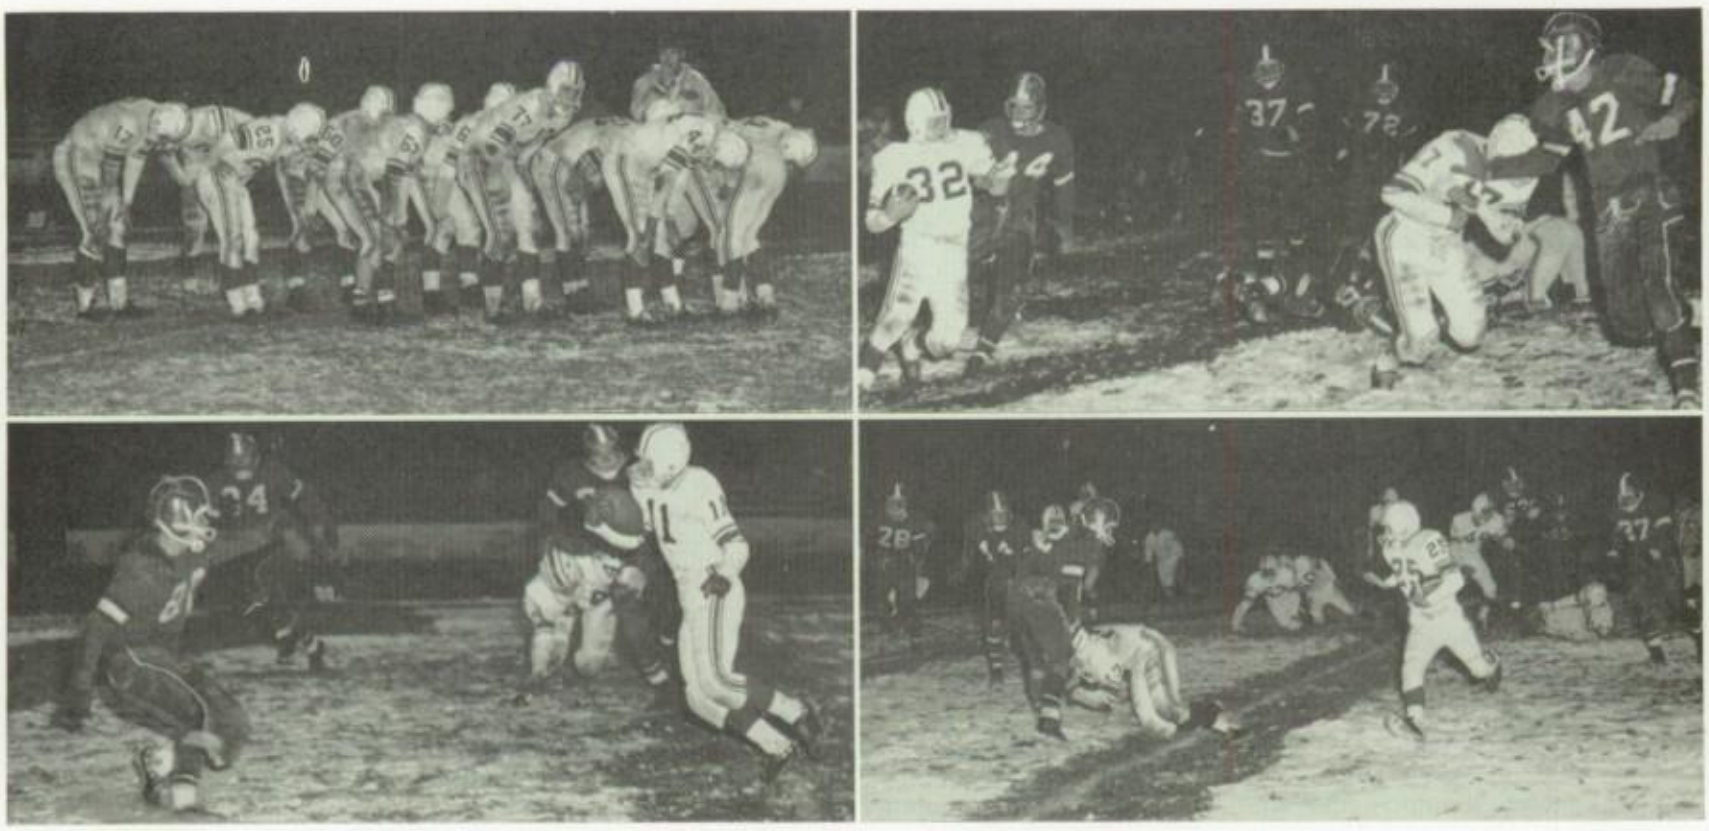
BETTER THAN AVERAGE SEASON

The Richland Rams Varsity gridders finished the '62 season turning in a fine record of five wins, three losses, and one tie. The Rams scored victories over Everett, Franklin, Portage, Blairsville, and Bedford. While holding the opponents to 98 points, the Rams scored 155. Two shut-out games, one against Portage and the other against Franklin, were two of the RHS team's achievements this past season.

The final home game of the year was the night set aside for all the players to be honored. The night was dampened, however, when our boys were defeated by Conemaugh Township. Next week, the season was closed in fine style as the RHS boys soundly rolled over Everett 46-7.



VARSITY MANAGERS - INCONSPICUOUS BUT INDISPENSABLE

The often ignored varsity managers turned in another of the long list of superbly managed seasons. Their main purpose was caring for the players and equipment. Under the supervision of Mr. Kipp, they were always on the job answering to the wishes of the coaches and players.

"SILENCE IS GOLDEN"

After the pre-game warm-up and the playing of the Star Spangled Banner, a very rare moment of silence overtakes the field. This is the time when the players and coaches join together to pray a silent prayer. This time is surely a rewarding moment for all concerned.

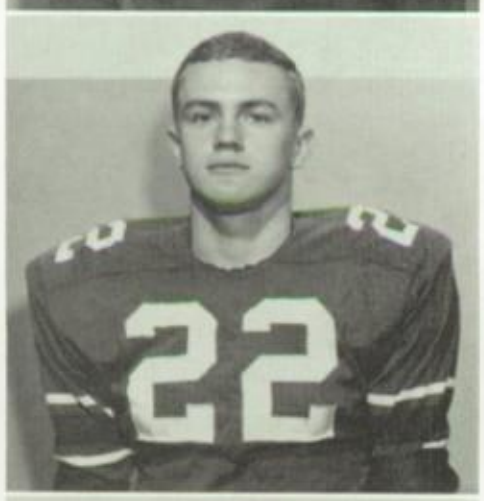
SENIORS

FRANK FABISH

Speed and driving power were the combination our fullback used to enable him to lead the Rams in touchdowns and extra points totaling over 50. Frank served as co-captain and also gained honorable mention in the Tribune-Democrat All Scholastic Team.

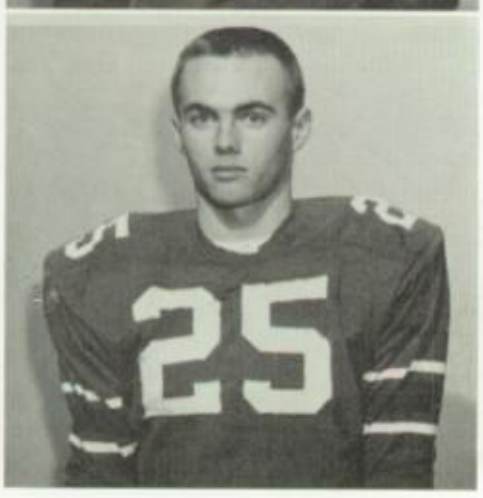
JOE JARDINA

Co-captain of the Varsity, Joe proved himself well worthy of his regular halfback position. Lightning-like speed, agility, and ability in handling the ball resulted in many long runs. During his three years on the Varsity squad he was truly an outstanding offensive player.



JACK BOYKO

Small in size but not in ability, Jack served as first string quarterback calling the signals for the Rams. Level headed action and prompt, accurate decisions made him a first rate player and, in turn, greatly helped in the Rams cause.



GERRY BURMAN

One of the smaller men on the R.H.S. team, Gerry held a regular berth as halfback. Demonstrating his usefulness in strengthening the backfield, his quick action and fine ball handling were of great value in many offensive drives.

JIM BARKHIMER

Being the "Big Man" of the Richland Eleven, he formed an unshakeable "stone wall" as the defensive tackle. Determined to do his best and to win, Jim became the "Keystone" in the R.H.S. line. Very few opponents succeeded in surpassing this tackle.

MARK TROSTLE

"Unfaltering" is the word best describing Mark. Earning the center position, he proved highly valuable on both the offensive and defensive teams. As a reward for his fine work, he was given honorable mention by the Tribune-Democrat All Scholastic Team.

TOM HART

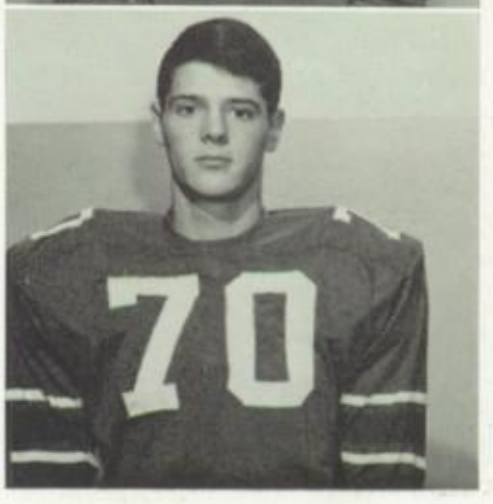
Hard to beat as regular tackle, Tom was a sturdy asset on the line playing both offense and defense. Hard hitting and excellent blocking stopped many attacking drives by the Rams' foes. A superb fighting spirit made Tom invaluable.

BILL MUNDWILER

"Skip" supplemented the main eleven many times this year as a defensive halfback. Although he was hampered by an injured shoulder, whenever there was a pass play, Skip could be seen breaking it up. His quickness in the defensive backfield prevented many touchdown passes from being completed.

MIKE LAZER

Mike did his part this year at defensive end. He was one more man for our strong line. During the games, he could be seen flashing in from his end position to throw the opponents for a loss.



Coach Puckey, Horner, Decker, Parker, Schmidt, Purbaugh, Hammer. Row 2: Beam, Smith, Hutzler, Knipple, Faczan, Fabish, Faith, Rowland.

VARSITY POSTS 18-6 RECORD

The Varsity cagers finished the season with an 18-6 won-lost record. Their record was sufficient for a third place finish in the West Central League and a first in the Mountain Conference.

After sweeping through the first three games the Rams, although playing great ball, lost to Bishop McCort in the last seconds of that game.

The Rams, for the second consecutive year, dominated the Annual Windber Rotary Basketball Tournament by winning the championship, taking the team sportsmanship trophy, and placing two players on the All-Tourney Team.

The team then suffered two losses to the powerful teams of Franklin and Johnstown Central.

The Rams finished out the season with 11 wins and only 2 losses. Included in these were single victories over East Conemaugh, Bishop McCort, Nanty-Glo, Triangle Area, and Westmont. Double victories were recorded against Adams, Laurel Valley, and Portage. The two losses were at the hands of Franklin and East Conemaugh.

The Rams finished out their highly successful season by competing in the District 6-B playoffs. They posted their first win over Penns Valley and lost the next one to Cresson who went on to become District champs.

RAMS SWEEP TOURNEY FOR SECOND YEAR

During the Christmas holiday, the Rams were again invited to compete in the Windber Rotary Basketball Tournament. To sweep the tournament as last year's team was a challenge for the Rams who were considered underdogs. The competing teams were Bishop McCort, who previously had beaten the Rams, Somerset and East Conemaugh.

In the first game the Rams polished off the rangy East Conemaugh team. On the second night, the Rams took on the favored Bishop McCort team. Through determination and hustle, the mighty Richland five came from behind in the fourth quarter to seal the tournament. The dominating Rams also took the coveted team sportsmanship trophy and placed Ray Faczan and Clyde Horner on the All-Tourney team.

ESSENTIAL FOR VICTORY

The pre-game warm up is spent getting loosened up for the games. The Rams use various drills so that when the whistle is sounded, they will be ready for action.

LET'S GO!

As the buzzer sounds for the start of the game, the players assemble around the coach. In the huddle they receive their final instructions of "do's and don'ts." Here, the team is ready to break the huddle and go out to win another victory for the school.

RAY FACZAN

Pacing the Ram cagers, "the tall man" was top rebounder and led the team in points scored. Ray, who served as captain of the team, was an outstanding center.

SENIORS

FRANK FABISH

The task of rebounds come on the list of duties for Frank. Handling this job with skill and ease, he deserved his spot as guard with the regular five.

TOM BEAM

Controlling and handling the ball were Tom's specialties. As a regular starting guard, his coolness and untiring action on the court gained many points for the Rams.

TERRY HAMMER

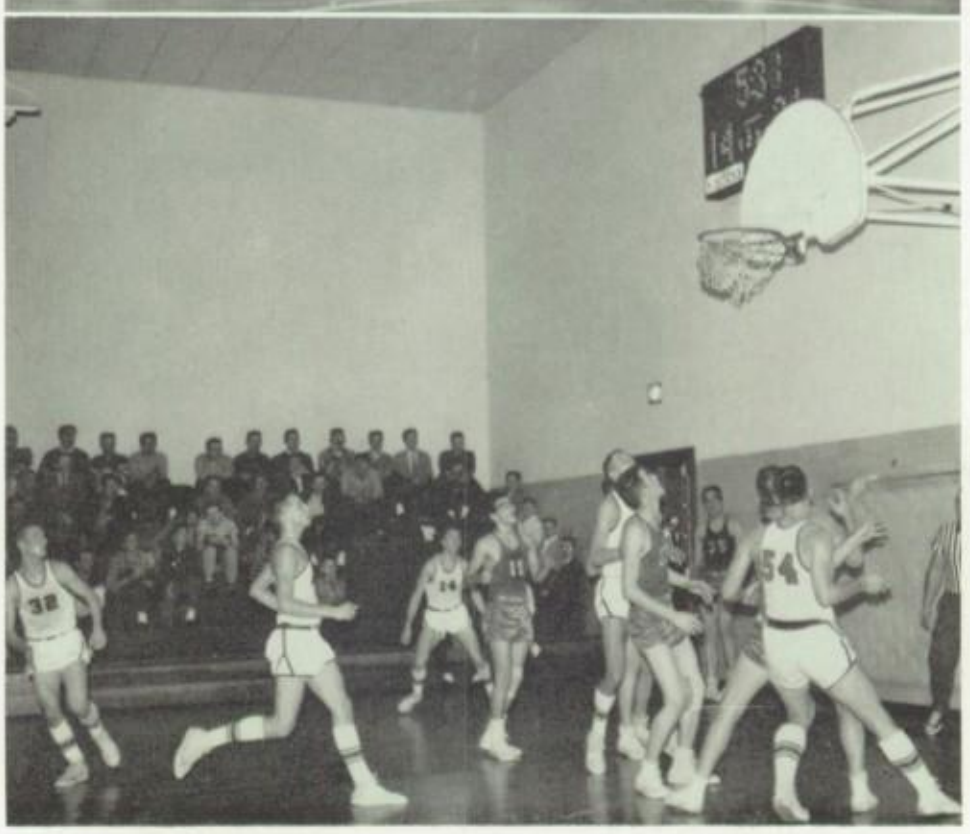
Adding reserve strength as a forward to the main five, Terry's aggressiveness quickened the pace of the RHS cagers many times this season.

REBOUND ACTION

Ray Faczan fights two McCort players, Stofa and Kurowski, under the boards for a rebound. Frank Fabish watches and hopes that Ray gets possession of the ball. Each Richland rebound is a vital part of the game, for a rebound can be turned into a basket for the Rams. Although the Rams did not have superior height this year, Frank and Ray were able to gain their share of rebounds on both the offensive and defensive boards.

JUMP UP HIGH

Ray Faczan and Adam's Gary Patrick are involved in a jump ball. Each player hopes that his team will finally come up with the ball. The jump ball starts the game and is used whenever two opposing players have the ball at the same time.



RAISE THE SCORE

The ball swishes through the hoop and two more points are added to the Richland score. This action takes place during the first meeting of Richland and Adams on the Ram's court. Richland used their zone press to break the game wide open and gain an easy victory over the Hornets.

ANOTHER WINNING SEASON FOR THE JUNIOR VARSITY

The JV basketball team turned in another successful season of fifteen wins and only five losses. The expectations generated by the defeat of their first two opponents were somewhat dampened by a three game losing streak. Not to be outdone, Coach Puckey's squad bounced back for the next fifteen games showing thirteen wins and only two losses.

With this experienced and successful nucleus for next year's varsity team, RHS can look forward to another fine season.

FINE SEASON FOR RICHLAND'S NINE

The Richland nine, having improved greatly over last season, downed seven of ten opponents. Overcoming their first three teams, the Rams were halted by a three game losing streak. They then went on to finish the season with four successive victories.

Coach Pruchnic provided the boys with the experience and know-how that winning teams need.

Next year the Rams are determined to better their already fine record.

TRACKMEN SETTING RECORDS

Though not having the crowds drawn by football and basketball, track is a favorite sport at Richland. The RHS trackmen found themselves against some hard opposition this season, but they had the stamina and determination to come through with a fine record. Our trackmen proved to be a hard squad to beat.

Win, lose or tie the boys showed the good sportsmanship Richland is noted for.

Coach Emil DeMarco did a fine job of coaching and training the boys. Without his ability to get a little more effort from each runner, many victories would have been defeats.

ON YOUR MARK

During practice, Terry Hammer and Jack Boyko are set, waiting for the sound of the gun, to streak towards the finish line. Preliminary trials are held at the practices before the meets. The winners of these trials then get the opportunity to compete in the regular meet the following day.

JV CHEERLEADERS

Karen Klimeck, Linda Kirschman, Judy Kuhlman, Cheryl Irons, Sue Weller, Linda Ream, Mary Lesosky.

The Junior Varsity Cheerleaders have done a fine job this year. Their pep and spirit helped to lead the J. V. teams to victory many times at both football and basketball games. Long hours of practice were devoted to learning the cheers and perfecting them. The result was a squad which brought credit to Richland. Leading the J. V.'s were Judy Kuhlman, who served as captain, and Mary Lesosky, co-captain. Mrs. Heinze was their advisor.

JAYVEES IN ACTION

The J. V.'s, cheering with increasing energy, were not surpassed by other J. V. squads. Practice during the summer and after school helped to co-ordinate the girls in their cheering.

Kormanik, Swick, Krasovic, Bittner, Hoffman, Yost, Pe:z, S:uart, Hornick, Smith.

REMEMBER—SMILE AND BE PEPPY

Seen and heard at all Varsity football and basketball games are our ten Varsity cheerleaders. The squad consisted of six seniors, two juniors, and two sophomores with the addition of Pam Gaston, also a senior, during basketball season. Early in June the girls started practice and continued to work throughout the summer. Dances and pep rallies were just a few of their many duties in addition to the cheerleading contest and regular games. Always neat and peppy, they have enthusiasm to spare. Hats off to Richland's cheerleaders and their advisor, Mrs. Louis Heinze.

"KEEP MOVING AND MAYBE WE WON'T FREEZE"

Ignoring the bitter cold weather, our faithful cheerleaders donned slacks and mittens and, as usual, were on hand to cheer our team to victory. Everyone present, however, was warmed somewhat when an impressive victory was scored for the final, and perhaps the coldest game of the year.

"VICTORS TONIGHT"

The Nineteenth Annual Cheering Contest at the War Memorial proved highly rewarding for our Varsity cheerleaders this year. They were victorious in capturing and returning home with a well-deserved Third Place trophy, one of several trophies received by Richland's cheerleaders.

This year we can look back to those memorable occasions which were the Coronation Ball, the Pep Club Dance, and the climax of the year, the Junior-Senior Prom. In remembering these times, we can also think of the organizations and their contributions. The Drama Club with its performances, the spring concert presented by our band and chorus, the Pep Club with its activity at the basketball and football games. All of these and many others have made it a rewarding year for the RHS students. While looking through this section, try to find yourself in the formal shots of the organizations. If you do not find your own photo, make it a point next year to become a member and do your part in making Richland Township a very active group of students. In doing so, students, we laud you.

YEARBOOK PRODUCTION IS COOPERATIVE EFFORT

Editors and staff members appointed at the end of the 1961-62 school term got an early start planning and preparing Volume 18.

The photography staff with the help of Cover Studio did a commendable job with the many pictures taken both in and out of school.

The patron drive, subscription sales, and write-ups were well under way by the middle of the school year.

Mr. Maquilken, the editors and staff all contributed to make the Portal a success.

Lone man on the Art Staff of the Portal, Jack Boyko is adding the finishing touch to an outstanding publicity poster. Jack tackled well the job of designing this year's cover and arranging the division page layouts.

Linda Friedman and Sandy Riffle carried out the task of planning and laying out the Senior section of our yearbook. Drew Ivancic, Frank Fabish, and Norma Yost followed with the Sports section.

Here staff members Joan Kormanik, Nancy Wolf, Terry Purbaugh, Cheryl Irons, Joan Pataky, and Peggy Hornick, are sorting out pictures and trying to decide which ones to use.

Barry Hofecker and Tim Yost are busy here cropping pictures. They played a vital part on the Portal staff, taking all candid and action shots of dances, games, and the like. They also assisted the photographers from Cover Studio when group pictures were being taken.

As in the past, the Portal's main fund raising campaign was the patron drive. Seen here Susie Gilbert, Gail Stuart and Joyce Shaffer are checking the lists to make sure all contributors are accounted for.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

The Student Council has two major purposes. These are the improvement of both the students and the school. In the past year our council has tried to achieve both aims. The Hall Monitor system sponsored by the Student Council has been improved. A dance, the "Football Finale," was sponsored by the Council and was highly successful. The Ram handbook has proved to be of great use to new and old students alike. The Student Council has supported two major fund drives, the United Fund Campaign, and the Johnstown College New Campus Fund. The Christmas food baskets distributed to needy families are a symbol of what combined student effort can accomplish. Although this was Miss Hoffman's first year as advisor, the manner in which she performed her duties was highly commendable.

The officers of the Student Council must constantly keep in mind the responsibility of service to the student body and to the school. Shown here Mary Lou Swick, secretary; Ray Faczan, vice-president; Norma Yost, chaplain; Janet Hoffman, parliamentarian; Tom Beam, treasurer; Lynda Zarisky, president; and Ellen Reed, assistant chaplain are in the process of packing Christmas food baskets for needy families.

MONITORS PROVE EFFECTIVE

Serving our student body during their study halls were the strategically situated Hall Monitors. A branch of the Student Council, this group helped police the halls. The system of registration when in the halls, other than between classes, has proved an effective check against hall roamers.

As we were saying, our more dedicated students sacrifice their study halls to serve faithfully as Hall Monitors. Actually, Sylvia Havener, Linda Ellsworth, and Mike Lazer are discussing the various difficulties a monitor must face.

1963 INDUCTION SERVICE

STRONG LEADERS MAKE A GOOD SOCIETY

The officers of the Paragon Chapter of the National Honor Society were selected from the students who joined the group as juniors last year. These officers include: Tim Hunt, President; Mary Lou Swick, Treasurer; Miss Green, Advisor; Thomas Beam, Vice-President; and Barbara Komisar, Secretary (absent when picture was taken). These officers along with the other '62 members were responsible for the planning and presentation of the induction ceremony. They were also in charge of business meetings which the group conducted. Along with Miss Green, the officers have helped the society to maintain its high standards.

Row 1: Swick, Gilbert, Zarisky.

HONOR SOCIETY MEMBERSHIP-- A CHERISHED POSSESSION

Twelve students, including three seniors and nine juniors, possessing the qualities of character, scholarship, leadership, and service were granted membership in the National Honor Society. This is one of the highest honors that can be attained in high school. These students were chosen from eligible candidates by the Faculty Council. The ceremony began with brief explanations of the four qualities by members of the society. A senior student, Connie George sang "You'll Never Walk Alone." Mr. William Harper, high school principal, administered the oath to the new members. The ceremony ended with the singing of "The Lord's Prayer" by Mr. David Samuel, faculty member.

The society proved to be beneficial again by providing a tutoring service for students. Another service for the student body was "career night." Local people of various occupations were invited to lecture on their profession to interested students.

The group climaxed the year's activities by holding a banquet at Ripples' Inn, April 13. Former members were invited to attend. To date the society boasts 143 members since 1952 when the society was formed.

DESTINATION – TEACHING?

The Future Teachers of America with Miss Sue Green as advisor, gained classroom experience on both elementary and secondary levels. Observing and teaching classes was an event proposed to help club members in the decision of whether "to be or not to be" a teacher.

Ellen Reed and Jack Boyko were chosen as Richland's chief delegates to the State Convention in Harrisburg, and Senior Bill Kenny was elected President of the Cambria County branch of the P.F.T.A.

Serving as officers of the club were Peggy Hornick, president; Brenda Zedlar, vice-president; Lois DeBiase, secretary; and Pam Berish, treasurer.

Aside from the regular monthly meetings, Richland F.T.A.ers participated in region and county conventions; visited the State Rehabilitation Center, were guests at a Windber club meeting; and had the Ferndale FTA as their guests at one of their meetings. Seen here, cadet teacher Judy Kuhlman is assisting parents the night of Open House, for which the club acted as ushers.

"FOR A GOOD CAUSE"

A familiar sight at home basketball games was the refreshment table. It was manned by the U.N. Club members. This group also sponsored dances after Friday night home games. In this manner the members raised money for the trip to Pittsburgh while they served the school.

SOLVING PROBLEMS OF THE WORLD

There may be a future U.S. delegate to the United Nations at R.H.S. If there is, he no doubt is a member of our Student U.N. Club. The members of this group study the rising problems of the present world and discuss possible solutions to them. Members of this group agree that the club is both educational and fun. The club attended the Student United Nations Session which was held in Pittsburgh on April 19 and 20. While in Pittsburgh the members attended the planned activities and accordingly met many new friends. The trip was enjoyed by all.

Elected as officers of the U.N. Club were: Bob Kidd, president; Pat Lee, vice-president; Julie Prazich, secretary; Clark Saylor, treasurer; Susie Gilbert and Lynda Zarisky, parliamentarian. Miss Green is the advisor of the group.

ECHO SUCCESSFULLY PUBLISHED WEEKLY

News, action, sports events, club activities, elections! Wherever you find these happenings, you find eager Echo reporters taking notes to report to the rest of the school. Echo, the school's official newspaper, is printed once a week.

Mr. Hozik, advisor of the Echo, was a great help in seeing that deadlines were made. He did a commendable job aiding the students in criticizing the different write-ups turned in by his staff.

Although sometimes not able to reach their publication goal, they; nevertheless, turned out an enjoyable newspaper every week. The paper contained many different news items—among them dances, club news, faculty news, and many editorials and added features.

Never missing a sports event the reporter always related accurate happenings of football, basketball, baseball, and track events to the student body. Excellent work by the staff proved a big pay-off for all.

"TO TEND THE SCHOLARS' BOOKS"

The Student Librarians are under the advisorship of Mrs. Elaine Zacula this year. They are always willing to help students find library material. The girls work in the library during their study halls or morning homeroom period. This year the Senior High Librarians became a separate club from the Junior High. The Senior High Club has a membership of sixty-two girls.

The main activity of the club was a dance held on March 23. It was called the "Tahitian Twirl."

Elected as officers of the Student Librarian Club were: Prazick; Konoski, Adams, Hetrick, secretary; Podlucky; Machtley, president; Mrs. Zacula; Blough, treasurer; Reeder, vice president; P. Weaver and J. Weaver.

Officers of the Dramatics Club are: Jack Boyko, vice president; Joe Sukenik, president; Janis Thirkell, secretary; and Barbara Morbit, treasurer. Mr. Robert Selby, a teacher at the Junior High, became the advisor of the club this year.

DRAMA AT R. H. S.

The Drama Club was very active this year. Two plays were presented through much practice and hard work from the members. "Too Much Christmas," was presented to the student body on December 22. The cast of this play is shown in the upper right photo. The second play, "Thunder on Sycamore Street" was performed for the public the evenings of March 7 and 8. Other activities of the group included Christmas caroling and the ordering of pins for the members.

In the lower right photo the stagehands are shown. Without the work of these people we could not have enjoyed the many plays and assemblies this year.

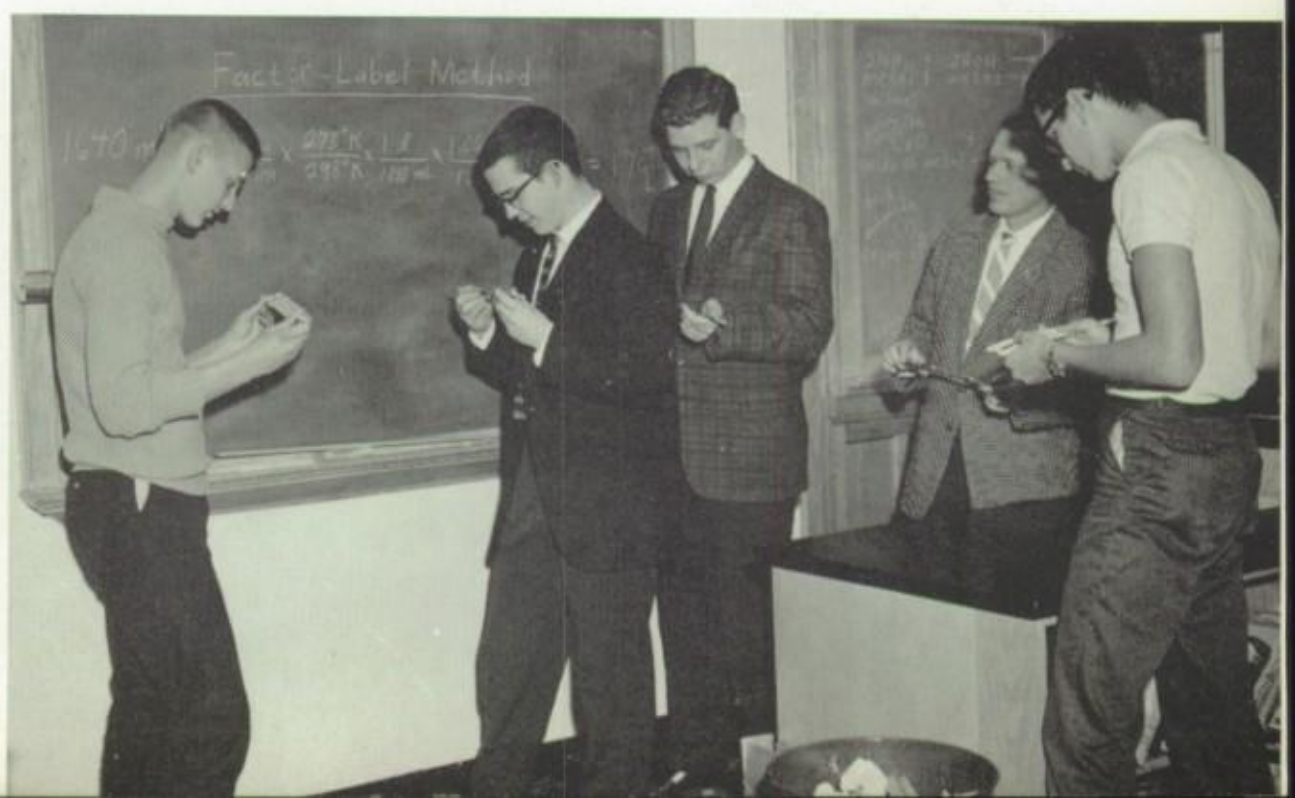
CALCULUS ANYONE?

The math club enables interested students to become more acquainted and advanced in various phases of mathematics. Its activities included attending a meeting of the Bishop McCort math club. Officers are as follows: F. Heming, president; R. Huebner, vice president; E. Reed, secretary; and J. Prazich, treasurer. The group's advisor was Miss Boback.

BUT I GET . . .

The Junior Engineers Technical Society was under the advisorship of Mr. Joseph Huber this past year. Members were Larry Langerholc, Pat Lee, Bob Stump and Mike Misler. The club has been in operation three years. It has undertaken various experiments in rocketry and in other aspects of science.



DOLLAR DAY DOWN TOWN?

No, it's just a few of our dependable Varsity "R" coatcheckers after one of the basketball games. This worthwhile project proved to be a great help to the loyal fans who supported the team, and was only one of the many ways in which the Varsity "R" has served its school.

JACKETS DISTINGUISH LETTERMEN

Advised by Coach Don McCrae and led by President Joe Jardina, the Varsity "R" is an honorary club for lettermen. To qualify for membership, one must letter either in football, basketball, baseball, or track.

Various activities of the group include coat checking and ushering at basketball games, selling "Ram" auto decals, and sponsoring an annual fund raising dance. Members are easily distinguished by their red and blue Varsity "R" jackets.

Officers include Frank Fabish, vice-president; Joe Jardina; Rick Slatcoff, treasurer; and Jack Boyko, secretary.

The newest club to be organized at R.H.S. is the Key Club. Aside from regular weekly meetings, the group has begun work on several projects for the school and the community. Advisor Mr. John Holsberger works in connection with the Kiwanis Club, which sponsors the school group.

Serving in the capacity of first year officers are Ray Faczan, president; Rick Knipple, vice-president; Tom Beam, secretary; and Bob Kidd, treasurer.

COMBINED SERVICE WITH PLEASURE

The activities of the Y-Teens were varied. The group participated in the annual Halloween Parade in Johnstown, held a bake sale for their money raising project, enjoyed swimming at the Y.M.C.A., and had an induction service at which time new members joined the organization.

Mrs. Judith Heinze, girls athletic director, and Miss Nettie J. Russell, guidance counselor, were the advisors of the club. Officers of the group included: Donna Marsh; Elaine Sichak; Chris Konoski, vice-president; Barbara Souerbrower, treasurer; Elaine Wilkinson, president; and Judy Adams, secretary.

SUB SALE SMASHING SUCCESS

Of the many Pep Club money making projects, the sub sale proved the most successful. Over twelve hundred subs were sold by the girls in the organization. They contributed many of the ingredients and purchased the remainder. In the process of making the subs, the girls started early, and, working in shifts, completed them by supper time.

OFFICERS ON THE GO

The Pep Club officers did a fine job in organizing and following through their many activities. These seven girls proved to everyone their capability in leadership. The officers are Pam Gaston, secretary; Billie Gae Campbell, treasurer; Nancy Wolf, president; Julie Prazich, vice-president; Chris Konoski, Awards chairman; and Brenda Zedlar, Pep Committee chairman.

OUR PEPPY PEP CLUB

The Pep Club was one of the most active organizations at Richland this year. The girls contributed greatly in promoting school spirit and clean sportsmanship throughout the past seasons. At any sports event you can always hear them cheering their team on to victory. Win or lose, our teams were always backed by this fine group of girls.

Although Mr. and Mrs. Louis Heinze were in their first year as advisors, they did a commendable job in leading the girls through many activities. Limited not only to sports events, they also participated in many other worthwhile projects. Among them are the car wash at the Richland Fire Hall, a submarine sale, the annual Pep Club Dance, the selling of booster buttons during both football and basketball season.

The strong support of the Pep Club at the Cheering Contest this year helped the cheerleaders greatly in capturing third place honors. Their formation of "Rams" in red was one example of their never-dying school spirit.

"SING ALONG WITH RICH"

The Senior High Mixed Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Richard Cuppett, took pride in presenting a separate concert on April 27th.

This year three extracurricular groups were formed. They are the Girls' Ensemble, the Girls' Sextette and the Boys' Quartette. These groups met after school.

Connie George, Gretchen Redick, Ken Diable and Gary Naugle qualified for District Chorus which was held in Leechburg, Pennsylvania. Gretchen also had the honor of attending State Chorus held at Conemaugh Township High School this year.

The following were elected as the officers for the 1962-63 school term: Karen Machtley and Brenda Zedlar, librarians; Connie George, secretary; Janet Hoffman, vice-president; Clyde Horner, treasurer; and Gary Naugle, president.

Last year the Richland music department, through combined efforts of the chorus and band, presented its concert entitled "Rythmic Rainbows." In following the theme, the chorus performed numbers of different tempo, style, and origin. Among the favorites were: "Louise," "Little Brown Jug," "Tuxedo Junction," "Rockin' Red Wing," and the encore, "Ode to America," in which both chorus and band personnel participated.

Mr. Cuppett spent long hours in preparation for this season's half-time shows. His fine efforts were displayed as the Marching Rams entered the field to the tune of "Hey, Look Me Over."

The job of being drum major calls for alertness and skill. Although only a sophomore, William Ketterer proved capable of both. Throughout the year, Bill led the band through many parades and half-time shows successfully.

MARCHING RAMS REPRESENT PENNSYLVANIA AT CHERRY BLOSSOM FESTIVAL

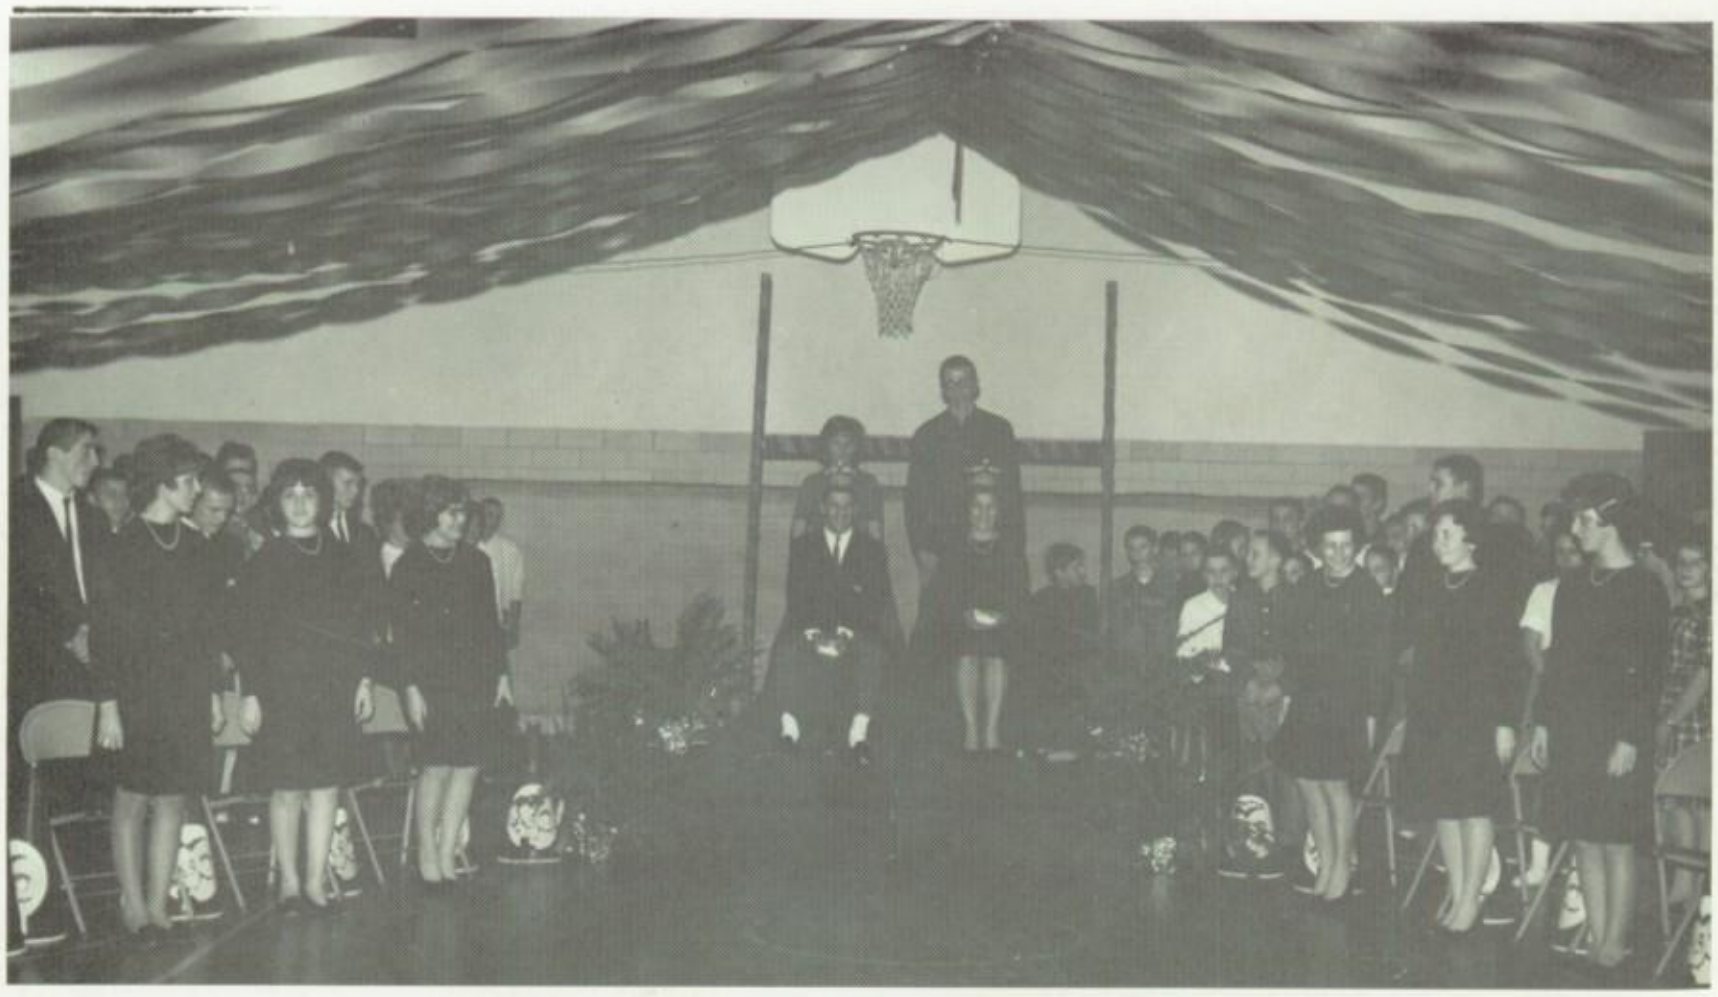
The greatest of all honors for a high school band is taking part in the National Cherry Blossom Festival in Washington, D. C. This year, that honor went to the Marching Rams of 1962-63. In order to make the journey to Washington, it was necessary for all band members to participate in various money making projects. This they engaged in wholeheartedly.

The Marching Rams have also won recognition for Richland in several parades throughout the year.

The high-stepping majorettes were quite an asset to the Marching Rams of 1962 and 1963. With sparkling performances, they contributed greatly to both football and basketball half-time shows.

WHAT A GOALPOST!

Posing a bit different for their group picture this year are the Richland "Ramettes" Elain Rodkey, Candy Killen, Pat Lythgoe, Judy Mrsnik, Lucky Curry, Ann Langerholc, Betty Finch and Debbie Vince.



Puttsy Bittner and Rick Slatcoff, Peggy Hornick and Gerry Burman, Mary Lou Swick and Skip Mundwiler, Norma Yost and Joe Jardina, Gail Stuart and Frank Fabish, Janet Hoffman and Jack Boyko, Sandy Krasovic and Clyde Horner.

FOOTBALL MONARCHS CROWNED

Joe Jardina and Norma Yost were crowned king and queen of football at the "Football Finale" on November 30. The dance was sponsored by the Student Council.

The court consisted of two junior couples and five senior couples. Although there was stiff competition, all felt that Queen Norma and King Joe were deserving of their crowns.

KING AND QUEEN LEAD COURT IN ROYAL DANCE

SENIORS CROWN KING AND QUEEN

Ray Faczan and Lynda Zarisky were crowned King and Queen of the Senior Class of 1963 at the Coronation Ball on January 12. The purpose of this annual event, sponsored by the Seniors, is to select, as King and Queen, the two students who have kept in stride with their class motto, "Leadership for some, Achievement for many, and Service for all." Ray and Lynda were certainly deserving of this honor.

The high school gym was decorated in the Senior Class colors, gold and white. As the couples of the court entered, the mood for the coronation was set to the strains of "Moon River."

After the crowning, King Ray and Queen Lynda were presented gifts by the class.

"A FUNNY THING HAPPENED TO ME ON THE WAY TO THE PROM TONIGHT . . ."

Mr. Paul Wissler, master of ceremonies at the banquet, made an enjoyable evening even more enjoyable by the manner in which he executed his duties. Mr. Thomas Sigmund gave the invocation. Ray Faczan, Junior Class President, extended a welcome to the Seniors. Jim Reed, Senior Class President, expressed thanks to the Junior hosts. The Girls' Trio, including Connie George, Susan Pritts, and Sharon Streilein, accompanied by Judy Kaufman, entertained.

A TRIP BEYOND THE RAINBOW

The annual Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom was held on May 25, 1962, at the Sunnehanna Country Club in Westmont. "Beyond the Rainbow" was the theme carried out that night. The Junior Class, who served as hosts to the Seniors, were responsible for planning and financing the banquet and prom.

To begin the evening, a full course meal was served. Then, after food, speakers, and entertainment, the dancing commenced.

As the night of the prom faded, memories of this special time were formed. All will certainly remember this night as being a most enjoyable one.

It doesn't look as though anyone has room for seconds. The full course meal served at the banquet proved to be a test for even the hearty eaters. The banquet was an occasion to try out a few dusty manners and etiquette.

Not coming as a surprise to anyone, the twist invaded prom dancing. Despite beautiful gowns and heels, the girls had no trouble engaging in this particular form of locomotion. As the evening progressed, no one would admit that he was growing even a little tired. This was a night he would remember always, the night "Beyond the Rainbow."

What do you mean, they don't serve champagne? Well, no matter, I'm sure we can get some cokes.

Here a group of prom goers seem to be enjoying themselves. Perhaps the topic of conversation relates to activities after the prom. Whatever else it may be, this was undoubtedly a welcome interlude between dances.

Music at the prom was provided by Bill Wilson and his orchestra. The soft numbers set a perfect atmosphere for the evening, while the twists were a welcome change to all.

DAN CUPID VISITS RICHLAND

The "Playboys," a local group, provided the music for the evening. Choosing an excellent variety of tunes, the combo sang and played many smooth, slow numbers, a few tricky cha-chas, and an occasional twist. As can be seen, everyone enjoyed themselves immensely, including chaperones, club members, and dates alike.

This year, as has been the custom in the past, graduate members and their dates were invited to the dance. Seen here, Marilyn Blough and Kerm Inman, Helen Shaffer and Larry Horne, and Alice Kenny and D. Grow decided to take a breather after that last twist.

On February 16, 1963, the Senior High Pep Club sponsored its annual semi-formal dance. Held in the beautifully decorated gym, the dance began at 8:00 and continued until 11:00. In keeping with the date, the theme of the dance centered around Valentine's Day.

During the main intermission, President Nancy Wolf presented the club's advisors, Mr. and Mrs. Lou Heinze, with a token of the group's appreciation.

"But Putts, I haven't eaten in months," was Charlie's reaction when he spied the refreshments. The display of sandwiches, cookies, and punch looked inviting to all who attended.

DESIGNING THE BROOKLYN BRIDGE?

Under the guidance of Mr. Hollick, mechanical drawing students learn how to draft, and also to use the drawing instruments correctly. This is a valuable course for many boys, especially those who plan to enter the field of architecture or engineering.

GYM CLASS?

Although dancing is not the usual thing to do in gym class, these senior girls welcomed the change. This shows the efforts of Mrs. Heinze to co-operate with the PORTAL staff the day pictures were being taken for the yearbook.

END OF A LONG DAY

Where do you find contented students? Dismissal. At 2:45 students can be seen embarking from the institution of education. To the awaiting coaches seemingly lifeless students take on a new air as the final bell sounds.

ESQUIRES ENTERTAIN

A new group formed at Richland this year is the dance band. Performances given at basketball games during half-time were a welcome relaxation and won the well-earned applause of the audience.

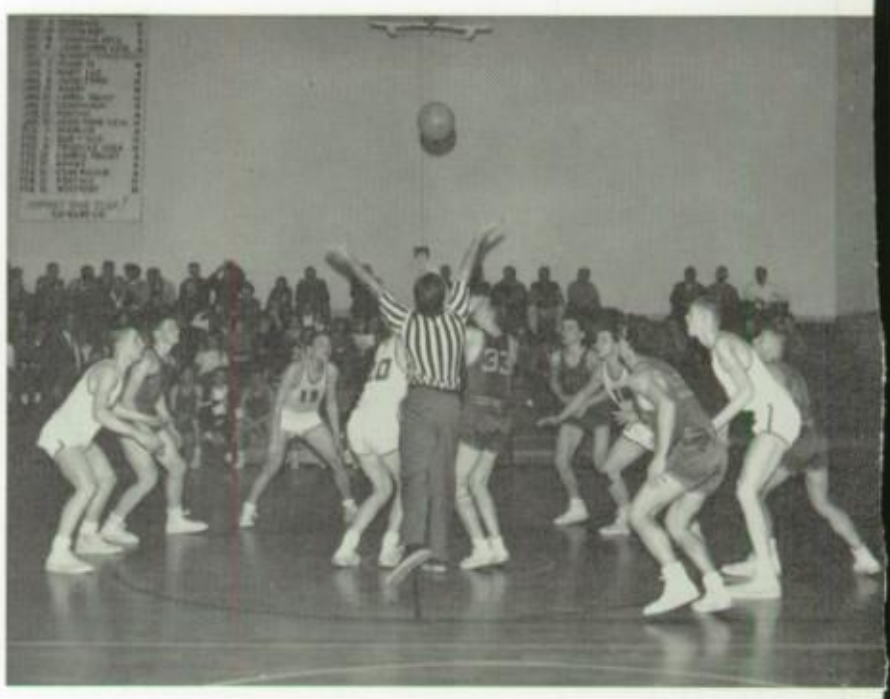
TO WASHINGTON

"STRENGTHENED BY SPIRIT . . ."

The cheering squad, strengthened by spirit, worked in earnest to bring honors to Richland. The cooperation of their advisor and the support of the Pep Club gave the girls the confidence they needed to win their trophy.

THE CENTER OF ATTRACTION

J. V. ball prepares boys for Varsity in experience and leadership. Without this in-between step, the jump from Jr. High to Varsity might be too great. The degree of interest in sports is decreased or increased in Junior Varsity athletics.



Even the hot summer days couldn't keep the loyal band members from practice. Their efforts, as well as those of Mr. Cuppett, gave Richland the right to boast the best band they ever had.

"ONLY TEN MORE MINUTES!"

"WHISTLE WHILE YOU WORK"

One of the many projects of the Pep Club this year was a car wash held at the Richland Fire Hall. The time and efforts spent that day are good examples of the girls' loyalty to the club.

THIS CALLS FOR STRATEGY

Every autumn Friday one could see the Richland fans fill the stadium to witness another gridiron battle. Only at Richland can you see this spirit and enthusiasm. Varsity football has held the enchantment of the fans at Richland for 10 years.

LOOKS LIKE A PICNIC

Although this may look like the makings of a picnic, band members will agree that practice should certainly not be described as one. However, they find time for refreshments several times during the day.

From childhood to adolescence, from elementary to junior high, these, relatively, are the first steps in becoming young adults. As these young people grow, they will be able to fill the shoes and broaden the horizons of the present generation. For this, these pupils must now acquire the ulterior factor to learn and to accept whatever responsibility is placed upon them. Soon these pupils will move onto a new and brighter horizon, senior high school. They will always hold in remembrance those wondrous days of adolescence. As you look through this section, remember that these are the faces and minds of the students which will soon be governing the senior high school.

Upon the completion of the junior high school building over the 1962 summer vacation, the seventh, eighth, and ninth grade pupils were able to return as a whole body to a newly equipped and elaborate environment. In accordance we, the PORTAL staff, have reserved the following section in its entirety to the junior high school students.

JUNIOR HIGH

"RESPONSIBILITY PLUS"

Mr. Nick Campitelli, graduate of Windber Area High School, holds the impressive title of first principal of Richland Township Junior High School. After seven years of teaching and as a coach at RHS, Mr. Campitelli took a leave of absence for graduate studies at Penn State. Upon returning, he was assigned to be the assistant principal at the high school. After the Junior High School reached completion, he was chosen as its first principal.

Mr. Campitelli has accomplished the task of running a large school with efficiency. This is his second year as principal.

Although quite busy with the responsibilities, he still finds time for coaching. During basketball season, he coached the undefeated Junior High team. He also helps Coach Puckey with the Varsity and Junior Varsity teams and with the winter recreation program held on Saturdays.

"HAVEN'T WE SEEN YOU SOMEWHERE BEFORE?"

Miss Mary Burns, a graduate of the class of "61," returned to the Richland Township School District last year. She is Mr. Campitelli's secretary. Having many duties to perform, she is given the title "handyman." Her main duties are keeping student records and running errands for teachers as well as Mr. Campitelli. Miss Burns said she enjoys her work and finds it very interesting.

"WHAT'S FOR LUNCH?"

Delicious, well-balanced meals are served to nearly 300 hungry junior high students. Although everything is new and spacious, it is still hard work preparing a meal for so many students. The method of serving is the same as at the high school. Members of the kitchen staff are: Ruth Kring, Rita Marsden, Vera Holsopple, Julia Shaller, Stella Sushereba, Lena Morely, Margaret Vezi, Mrs. Lang, and Irene Holman.

JUNIOR HIGH HANDYMEN

A custodians' work is never ended. There is always something to be repaired or something to be cleaned. They keep the Junior High shining immaculately. There are too many odd jobs to do as the regular ones. The responsibilities of these men are too numerous to mention, but each and everyone is done well. Shown here are Graham Wissinger, John Marcinko, and Dean Way.

Hall traffic at little Richland creates no problem, class exchange is done smoothly and without delay. Although the students have no trouble, the vast hall system presents a feeling of bewilderment to newcomers. The well lighted halls give the school a warm atmosphere and reflect the all round beauty of the Junior High.

"YOU JUST CAN'T BEAT US"

Not just an empty boast, the Junior High cagers were unbeatable. The Little Rams, coached by Emil DeMarco and Nick Campitelli, ended the season with an enviable 16 wins and no losses. Twelve of these victories came at the expense of foes in the Conemaugh Valley Jr. High League thus making our team champions for the third consecutive year. Proving themselves rugged and determined, the Jr. High registered victories over United, Bishop McCort, Conemaugh, Westmont, Ferndale, Conemaugh Township, Franklin and Adams. As can be expected, all are proud of the Little Rams.

JUNIOR HIGH SPLITS EVEN

The Little Rams, after losing their first three games, got on the winning trail this year. The undiscouraged gridders made a strong comeback the second half of the season. Coached by Emil DeMarco and Richard Matey, the young Rams finished the season in grand style.

HOW DO WE LOOK MRS. SILK?

Under the critical eye of Mrs. Jack Silk, the group's advisor, the Junior High cheerleaders performed their cheers with near perfect precision. Always looking neat and trim, their uniforms consisted of blue skirts and red vests symbolic of Richland's colors. Linda Thatcher and Linda Crelli served as captain and co-captain. Other members of the squad included: Kneeling: C. Cummins, L. Bassett, J. Falon, J. Priest, P. Blough, R. Wukina, R. Purbaugh, J. Smith. Standing: L. Crelli, Mrs. Silk, L. Thatcher.

TO CREATE COOPERATION

REGULAR MEMBERS

ALTERNATES

In its second year of functioning, the student council was a success in student governorship and the overall student leadership of the school. Helping with the orientation and dedication of the new junior high building, they proved capable of directing the many guests to the various parts of the building.

Throughout the school year they sponsored a coming events sign in the cafeteria, the lost and found, and the student supply in which school supplies are sold every lunch period.

Two dances presented by the Student Council were remembered by all in attendance.

Co-advisors, Mr. Campitelli and Mr. Pruchnic, directed the Student Council through many more projects too numerous to mention.

POLICE HALL TRAFFIC

The hall monitors at the Junior High School differed somewhat from that of the Senior High hall monitors. The bell ringing a minute before the end of the period automatically excused the hall monitors to open doors of all classrooms. This makes it more convenient for students to change classes. Keeping order in the halls is expected of the hall monitors and they achieved this goal throughout the school year. Traffic in the halls during the periods was slight and those requesting to leave the classrooms during class had to sign out with the class teacher.

Kneeling: Turner, Birtle, Coyle. Standing: Fair, Barker, Sichak, Weber, Alt.

WHAT'S A POLYGON?

Miss Boback, the new advisor of the Junior High Math Club, did a commendable job directing the club with their "higher math." The club contributed ten dollars towards the Pitt Campus fund, covered old math books, and saw various films. Officers were: M. Ivancic, president; D. Killen, vice-president; F. Arcurio, secretary; K. Hathcock, treasurer.

FUTURE ENGINEERS

The Junior High JETS was formed in order to promote an interest in engineering among junior high students. Next year the club plans to merge with the senior high organization.

Row 1: D. Seese, K. Wilson, K. Jacoby, B. Grush, P. Licht, K. Dickey, D. Burkett, Mr. Selby. Row 2: J. Lentz, J. Curry, C. Slack, W. Sipe, A. Just, J. Weaver, B. Brown. Row 3: G. Mihalic, P. Miller, N. Sischak, R. Karnosky, T. Fyock, W. Berkebile, D. McFarland.

DEVELOPMENT OF TEENS

The newly organized Junior High Y-Teens were under the advisorship of Miss Stoltz and Miss Calderwood. Among their many activities was a Christmas dance at which they accepted both money and canned goods for admission. The goods were donated to the Family Welfare. At Easter the girls dyed eggs and made Easter baskets also for the Family Welfare. During the mid-term they helped put on a program for the YWCA and the Lorraine Borough PTA. Taking part in the annual Junior Y-Teens dance at the VFW, their representative for queen was Charlene Cummins. Officers are: JoAnn DeBarto, president; Jean Jardina, vice-president; Margie Fair, treasurer; and DeeDee Cann, secretary.

JUNIOR HIGH SHOWS SCHOOL SPIRIT

The Junior High School Pep Club never faltered support of their athletes and their school. They stood firmly behind the mighty Little Rams in their undefeated basketball season. As in any other successful organization, good leaders are necessary. The Junior High Pep Club officers were as follows: D. Lehman, president; G. Heidson, vice-president; J. Ream, secretary; M. Lehman, treasurer; J. Dipert and L. Sharpe, Pep Committee chairmen; and C. Cemo and P. Salem, Awards chairmen.

Y-TEEN MEMBERS

FUTURE MARCHING RAMS

Years of valuable experience are acquired by members of the Junior High School Band. Members of the band become trained in the playing of their instruments, and at the same time become familiar with various marching techniques and formations. In this capable group of students lies the future of the Marching Rams.

JUNIOR HIGH GIRLS' CHORUS

This year's Junior High Girls' Chorus consisted of forty-seven ninth grade girls. The chorus has been engaged in various activities this year. Meetings were held Tuesdays and Thursdays during study halls. The girls presented a Christmas Concert and also a Spring Concert which was held on May 15.

OUR THANKS

There are many people who make possible the presentation of a yearbook. A co-operative and enthusiastic staff is a great potential force, but more than this is needed. Without the staunch backing of the senior class and the junior class, this yearbook could have been little more than a noble effort. Various other organizations and clubs have greatly aided the PORTAL. We also recognize the fine job of photography done by Cover Studios. The co-operation of the Zimmerman Engraving Company and Kurtz Bros. Printing Company was greatly appreciated. Although it is not possible to thank everyone personally, the editors and staff appreciate the efforts of all those who contributed to the publication of the PORTAL.
